Dear Stephanie,

My apologies for that. The short link should work – and it takes me to the correct page, though I know there have been problems with some of the short links.

The page you need to view is <https://www.wycombe.gov.uk/pages/About-the-council/Have-your-say/Consultations/Consultation-Longwick-cum-Ilmer-Submission-Neighbourhood-Plan.aspx>

The other page you linked should be up to date, and should have a link to that page. It's not got one right now, so I'll get that fixed.

Please let me know if I may be of further assistance.

Kind regards

Subject: FW: Notification of consultation - Longwick-cum-Ilmer Neighbourhood Plan

Dear Simon

I have tried to use the link below included in your email and I seem to be repeatedly confronted by a page not found, after attempting to navigate your website from the home page to find the neighbourhood planning section with no avail, I instead searched for the plan and came across this webpage: <https://www.wycombe.gov.uk/pages/Planning-and-building-control/Neighbourhood-planning/Longwick-cum-Ilmer-neighbourhood-plan.aspx>

As you will see the information on that webpage seems to be somewhat out of date and in conflict with the information contained in your email below – could you please send me the correct link to where the latest version of the neighbourhood plan which is due to go to consultation can be viewed.

Kind Regards,

Stephanie Buller

Two councils instead of five - the best solution for the people of Bucks

There is currently a debate in Buckinghamshire about the future of local government. The district councils' proposal is for two new unitary councils for Bucks. We believe this is the best solution for the people who live and work here. Find out more at www.modernisingbucks.org
