Overall I object to the plans - I think Risborough as a market town will be spoiled, and will end up a mirror image of the expansion that has happened in Aylesbury. If plans go ahead, I certainly will no longer wish to live here.

Southern school - why is this being built in such close proximity to the existing primary school?

Sports hub: why spend 3 million on a sports hub when Risborough Springs is currently subject to a £1.2 million extension and refurbishment plan?

Tesco's is not going to cope with demand from 2500 more households - where is the provision for a large supermarket?

I have concerns over the increased foot traffic coming over the proposed railway footbridge and onto the estate where I live which is currently relatively quiet.

Is the secondary school getting a much needed injection of funds to expand and improve?

There is precious little parking in Risborough already and I for one have heard complaints about the increased parking charges. Where are those living in the expanded area going to park when coming into the town? Not everyone is able/will walk - particularly those living on the far edge of the expansion!

(Please continue on a separate sheet/expand box if necessary)
