

Handling Traffic

Wider town transport measures

The town centre is well-used but the main A4010 road cuts through the town centre.

With heavy traffic, especially at peak times, the town centre is less attractive for pedestrians and cyclists, who have to contend with back up traffic and parked cars.

Putting measures in place to deter through-traffic could improve the town and have the backing of the local steering group.