09 May 2019

In the bulletin this week:

- Planning enforcement prosecution
- Alternative Route – more information

Planning enforcement prosecution

This was in last week's edition but may have been missed as it was at the very end.

Mr Harman of Acorn Tree Services was prosecuted on 1 May, in Wycombe Magistrates Court for illegal works to 2 x lime trees that were protected by Tree Preservation Orders. The trees were not destroyed, but the works carried out by Mr Harman seriously affected the health of the trees.

Mr Harman was fined £2000 (£1000 per tree), ordered to pay the costs of £2500 and given a £120 Victim Surcharge
